

Departmental Activities:

MOU signed with Institute of Public Health Heidelberg University, Germany for a collaborative project SPHERE, approved and funded by DAAD. Collaboration is in capacity building of faculty and students in Public Health both in Lahore and our students and faculty going to Heidelberg. SPHERE project between Institute of Public Health at University of Heidelberg (Germany) and Department of Public Health, Community Medicine at Shaikh Zayed Medical Complex and Institute of Public Health at University of Lahore from 2013-16.

2014-16, Heidelberg: 2 faculty members and 2 MPhil students visited Institute of Public Health at University of Heidelberg (Germany) from 2014, 15 and 16. They participated in short courses of 1 to 3 weeks duration.

2016 Lahore: International Public Health Conference, with theme of 'Public Health Education and Research' organized by DPHCM on 5th & 6th of August at Shaikh Zayed Medical Complex, Lahore.

Department organized a Post-Conference Workshop on 'Introduction to Biostatistics' facilitated by Dr. Andreas Deckert (Institute of Public Health, University of Heidelberg, Germany) from August 8-9, 2016, with 12 CME hours under this project umbrella.

DPHCM organized a 3-day workshop on 'Systematic Reviews: Theory and Practice' on 5-7th December 2016, facilitated by Dr. Olaf Horstlick (PhD), Director teaching at IPH, Heidelberg, Germany.

2015 Lahore: A 4-day workshop of 'Bioethics and Evidence-Based Medicine' was conducted under this project in Lahore, organized and hosted by DPHCM, SZMC (Department of Public Health and Community Medicine). This workshop was facilitated by Dr. Pauline Grys, PhD (IPH, Heidelberg University, Germany), Dr. Ahmad Azam Malik, PhD (UOL, King Abdul Aziz University, Jeddah) and Prof. Ayesha Humayun PhD (DPHCM, SZMC)

2014 Lahore: Workshop on 'Reference management and Publishing', in collaboration with IPH, Heidelberg

3 Masters in International Health students studying in IPH at University of Heidelberg visited Shaikh Zayed Medical Complex for 4 weeks each in 2015, 16 and 17 to work under co-supervision of Prof. Ayesha Humayun.

MOU with Directorate General of Health, Punjab for affiliation of RHC Kahna Nau and a urban low socio-economic community Naseeb Abad near RHC with our department for teaching and training purpose.

Faculty is training and supervising many postgraduate students of masters, MPhil and PhD in Community Medicine and Food and Nutrition.

Faculty facilitated more than 20 workshops on 'Research Methodology and proposal development' in different institutions like in Provincial Health Development Center (PHDC), Fatima Memorial System (FMS) and at other medical institutes and facilitated JAICA collaborated workshop at Provincial TB control program in previous years.

Faculty facilitated and organized workshop on 'Introduction to Research Methodology' in April 2015 at Shaikh Zayed Medical Complex

Worked for the implementation of MSDS in Shaikh Zayed Hospital for getting accreditation by Punjab Health Care Commission in 2014.

Dr. Ahmad Azam Malik, PhD in Public Health from Heidelberg got 1 year placement in DPHCM on Tenure Track during 2011-12.